

For Immediate Release

Contact: Amanda White, awhite@allianceswla.org

Fusion Five Donates to Alliance Foundation

Southwest Louisiana – Fusion Five, Southwest Louisiana’s premier young professionals’ organization, recently donated $1,000 to the Alliance Foundation’s “On the Move” Campaign which addresses the critical issues facing our region: workforce development, business recruitment, business retention and expansion, regional marketing, and building a single voice for a true regional partnership. The Chamber and the SWLA Alliance Foundation are part of the Southwest Louisiana Economic Development Alliance. As part of the funding for the SWLA Economic Development Alliance, SWLA on the Move promotes economic development in Allen, Beauregard, Calcasieu, Cameron and Jefferson Davis parishes.

Pictured from left to right: Brittany Duplechian, Alliance Foundation Director; George Swift, President/CEO of the Chamber SWLA and the SWLA Alliance; and Katie Hebert, 2017 Chair of Fusion Five.

About Fusion Five

Fusion Five is the premier young professionals’ organization in Southwest Louisiana. Founded in 2007, the organization strives to cultivate a positive impact in the region by connecting and engaging young professionals in regional opportunities for growth and development. For more information about Fusion Five, please call Morgan Turpin at 337- 439-2787 or visit www.fusionfive.org.

###